Board of Governors appoints 21 individuals as members of university boards of trustees

TALLAHASSEE - The Board of Governors today appointed 21 individuals to be members of the boards of trustees at the 11 institutions of the State University System of Florida.

"I welcome all of the new trustees to the State University System," said Sheila M. McDevitt, chair of the Board of Governors. "These individuals have distinguished records of leadership and experience, and they will provide trusted guidance to their institutions."

The 13-member Board of Trustees at each institution is responsible for cost-effective policy, implementing and maintaining high-quality education programs consistent with the university's mission.

The new appointees will join their respective boards on January 6, to serve five-year terms.

Chancellor Frank T. Brogan said the Board of Governors carefully reviewed more than 200 applicants from throughout Florida in a thorough process leading to today's appointments. "The State University System is honored to know that so many accomplished individuals want to contribute their time and energy to the greater success of our institutions and to our efforts to reshape Florida's economy," Brogan said.
